A dispute about a hog has been lately in the Indianapolis Court of Common Pleas. The value of the article in dispute was probably four or five dollars. The costs in the case can not have been less than seventy-five dollars.

Nine young gentlemen, and an equal num-ber of young Misses, have been expelled the Groton Academy at Lawrence, Mass., for hav-ing attended a dancing school, contrary to a rule of the institution. A drill match for a purse of $100, between the East Liberty Pennsylvania Infantry and the Duquesne Greys, of Pittsburg-two crack military companies—is shortly to come off near that city. A man in Philadelphia became temporarily insane, last week, on becoming unexpectedly possessed of $1,000. He flung a belt, in which was deposited $200, into the river, which was partially recovered. He is now growing wiser. It is stated that the stock of the Lacrosse and Milwaukee Kailroad sells at one per cent. The whole concern, bonds, bills, etc., is adver-tised for sale at Milwaukee, on the 19th of this

The extensive machine shop and saw-mill of S. S. Rickly & Brother, at Franklinton, near Columbus, O., was burned to the ground on Saturday morning. Loss about $6,000. Fire supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Two Cabinet officers, Messrs. Cobb and Tou-cey, disgraced their official places by going upon the floor of the Senate and House during the closing days of the session and lobbying to get the appropriation bills through in a shape to suit themselves.—Sandusky Register.

On Tuesday night last, a man named Michael O'Brien, a drunken, quarrelsome wretch, had an altercation with his wife, which was terminated by the death of the unfortunate woman-murdered by her "bushand." O'Brien has disappeared.

Mr. Fitzhugh O'Brien, an author, and resident of New York, has laid claim to the ancient Irish title and Barony of Inchiquin, Clare, Munster. A few years since a cousin of the same gentleman laid claim to the ancient and long extinct Barony of Fermoy, and was suc-

The Lafayette Courier says that on Saturday last an elderly man, named Arthur Burns, living near Monticello, shot his wife dead as she sat knitting, and then reloaded his gun and killed himself. Burns was a farmer. He had been divorced from the murdered woman whom he again married.

A person visited the Ohio Penttentiary, a few days since, and when he left, a prisoner, named Blackburn, reported to the jailor that he was one of the Coshocton Treasury robbers. The stranger was then on his way to Cleveland, but the telegraph was put in requisition, and the man arrested. Nothing suspicious was found

A little boy, four years old, about two feet high, was the means of obtaining the liberation of his drunken parents from jail, has week, at Balaimore, whither they had been sent for six months. A pelition was written for him, and he went round and obtained a large number of signatures, and then presented it to proper authorities, who promptly acceled to the request thorities, who promptly acceded to the request of the poor child.

Philip Barton Key, the victim of the late terrible tragedy in Washington, had an elder brother, who was killed many years ago, in a duel, by Midshipman Sherburne, of New Hampshire. Key's wife, who is dead, was a Miss Swan, of Beltimore. Her marriage came near causing a duel between her husband and Col. May, of Mexican notoriety, the latter alleging that Key had unfairly supplanted him in the lady's affections.

"Thusiness Dull.—The Indianapolis Citizen thus complains: "It is strange that police matters are so dull." Six hundred grog-shops in a town of this size ought to render business in this line quite flourishing. May be the hardness of the times operates as a sort of drawback to their influence."

PERPARED FOR THE WORSE,-We observe in the New York Freeman's Journal an obitionry notice of Daniel Kelly, Esq., to which is added this consolatory piece of information: "The deceased died the death of a good Christian, after a very brief illness, surrounded by his pastor, the Rev. Father O'Driscoll, and many of his most intimate friends, 'fortified' with all the rites of the Catholic Church. THE NEWEST WONDER, says the N. Y. Express, is the discovery of those mysterious vaults out at Jackson, Ohio. If these vaults were anywhere near New York, what a windfall the "sensation" journals would have, to be sure! There is not one of the "gigantic hones" but would be the subject of a reporter's "statement." ment."

PACIFIC RAILROAD .- The Boston Journal of the 3d says: A petition from Ohio was presented to our legislature yesterday, in aid of the petition of Josiah Perham and others, to be incorporated by the name of the People's Pacific Railroad Company.

MR. MORPHY .- At last accounts this gentlenan was at Paris, employed in arranging a selection of 100 games, preparatory to their simultaneous publication in Paris and London. It is said that he intends to shortly visit Berlin, where he will probably encounter Lange and Mayet. Thence he goes to Leipsic and Amsterdam.

Great excitement is manifested among the trehitects of London and their friends as to who will be the successful competitor for the design for Rev. C. H. Spurgeon's new Tabernacle. Hundreds of designs have been sent in.

Important Testimony.

From Hon. J. W. Chapman, Judge of First Judicial District, Indiana.

MADISON, 1nd., 1858.

Madison, ind., 1888.

Dr. Gro. W. Phillips, Cincinnati, Ohio:—Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup, personally and in my family, and having sten its effects on others, in numerous instances of severe cold and coughs, I most cheerfully recommend it as an infallible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the colds, accompanied by coughs, that now terminate in Consumption, would be effectually arrested. In fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can other athis remedy, being thus afflicted.

Lespectually yours,

Laryngitis Cured without Faith.

From Rev. Jas. Brown, Minister of the Ecformed Presbyterian Church, Madison.

Dr. Gro, W. Phinlips—Dear Sir. About a year ago I badan attack of Laringitis, to which I have been subject for a number of years. Learning that this was the fact, you handed me a bottle of your Cough Medicine. My confidence in your preparation was, I confess, not great. Nevertheless, as it was impocent and could do no harm, I was induced to trylt, and I am happy to say, with entire success. It not only cured me then, but I have had little or no affection of the kind since. This statement is cheerfully given, with the hope that others may be induced to follow my example, and receive the same benefit.

I am yours, &c., JAMES BROWN. Laryngitis Cured without Faith.

Cincinnati, Dec. 5, 1856.

Dr. G. W. Phillips—Dear Sir: Your Cougli Mixturs has been used with great success in my family. I belie all to be a most safe and efficacious preparation for the cure of ordinary colds, as well as of chronic affections of the throat and lungs. Many of my neighbors, who have felt the good effects of this medicine, assure me that they regard it with great favor.
